WHAT IS LRF?

LUMS Religious Festival (LRF) is the flagship event of the LUMS Religious Society. It aims to foster religious identity among young people and facilitate intellectual religious discourse, thereby precipitating a paradigm shift towards a more inclusive, accepting, and diverse society.

The event itself features multiple competitions based on religion: entrepreneurship targeting the religious audience, debate on global matters related to religion, research contrasting Islamic Laws with secular laws and what context Islamic laws exist in, even calligraphy expressing religion. This is in addition to speaker sessions from globally recognised scholars, solidarity initiatives, entertaining activities, and community service projects.

In short, LRF inspires faith in the youth, cultivates strong character, and promotes meaningful engagement with religion in the country.

VISION

The topic of religion is often neglected in large scale student-organized events in the collegiate sphere, and religious boundaries valued by many students, often overlooked. Over time, as a consequence of placing these boundaries on priority, such students remain bereft of the invaluable growth opportunities these events place on offer.

In the coming years, our vision for the LUMS Religious Festival is to pioneer an initiative which, while surpassing the transformative and professional experiences disseminated by other large-scale events, allows students who value religious boundaries to immerse themselves in these experiences, and think critically about the role of religion in contemporary society, growing intellectually, spiritually, and personally.

To achieve our vision, we aim to curate an event which offers a comprehensive list of avenues for engagement - aligning with the theme of religion as encompassing all facets of life. Through the combination of religious discourse with mainstream academia in all avenues, we aim to test delegates with the unique challenges that arise from this integration, placing emphasis on improvisation and resourcefulness in dealing with real word case studies and applied scenarios.

SAREER - E - KHAMA (Research)

Sareer-e-Khama (The sound of the pen) is LUMS Religious Festival's (LRF) hallmark research-based competition. The event is meant to foster the love of research in participants and encourage them to think critically regarding the contemporary issues they will cover, spanning a wide array of topics regarding religious thought. All of this must be done under the high standard of academic rigor, and an ethical, meaningful, research-based approach is expected from all in their submissions and presentations.

TAJDEED - E - TIJARAT (Entrepreneurship)

Tajdeed-e-Tijarat is a three-day entrepreneurial event that reconnects students with innovation and commerce by linking aspiring entrepreneurs with experienced investors. Maximum Delegates per Delegation: 3

HUJJAT - E - HAQ (MUN)

In its first edition, LRF hosted declamation contests ending in a British Parliamentary-style Grand Finale, all centered on Palestinian resistance and survival under Israeli occupation supported by imperial powers. The second edition introduced an OIC Council Conference (MUN), led by experienced Chairs who had represented LUMS at HNMUN, with an agenda focused on exploring a Unified Islamic Bloc similar to the EU for trade, defense, and collective policy coordination.

TASVEER - E - TAJALLI (Content Creation)

“Tasveer-e-Tajalli” offers participants a platform to express their creative and spiritual ideas through photography and videography. ## FEHM-E-ISLAM (QUIZ)

This exciting quiz category goes beyond the traditional question-and-answer style, offering a more engaging and immersive experience. # SOCIALS

Day 01

Inspiration and Insight with Champions of Faith and Leadership

Join us for a series of high-impact speaker sessions featuring celebrated CEOs, cricketing greats like Mohammad Yousuf and Saeed Anwar, and leading digital voices who bring deep insight from both professional excellence and faith-centered perspectives. These sessions, including a special talk by Youth Club, will explore how to navigate today's social and political challenges while carrying oneself with purpose, integrity and clarity in an increasingly fast-paced world.

Voices of Resistance, Truth and Faith

Day 2 aims to bring two powerful socials that shine a light on resilience, justice and the deeper meaning of faith. In partnership with Al-Khidmat and the Palestinian student community, we will host a reflective session on the humanitarian crisis of the past two years, highlighting the lived realities of genocide, the struggle to deliver aid on the ground and the resulting mass starvation endured by countless families. Alongside this, a marquee speaker session with a nationally or internationally acclaimed figure will invite participants into an honest, thought-provoking conversation on what faith truly entails, how it is perceived today and how it can be understood with clarity, purpose and sincerity.

After the awards, LRF 2026 will conclude with a dinner for all participants as a gesture of appreciation for the effort and dedication they put into the event over the three days.

FEEDBACK

Meeting new amazing people and seeing something like this done in Lahore was very impressive to see, may Allah reward the Management.

A nice event to participate in.... Pleasure to see an Islamic society in LUMS, putting its efforts to break the stereotypes about Islam....! Well done BOYS!

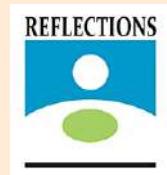

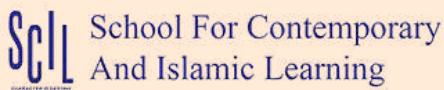

The way they conducted everything so well in their first try.

Female only segregation that allowed a comfortable gendered space for girls to truly participate .

In life, we have many identities. Son, brother, friend, student, citizen. But Alhamdulillah that you all organized this festival that allows young people across the country to express our most significant identity- that of being a Muslim, first. Not all of us (not even most of us) have that privilege through life. All the rest of our selves flow through our connection to Allah SWT. It is heartening to see you all initiate this as future leaders of the ummah Insha'Allah.

May Allah SWT bless you all manifold for making this experience so wholesome and complete for everyone. May your work always be sadqah e jariah for you. Ameen. So honour yourselves, since you did this without a promised reward or accolade of the world; for Allah's SWT sake alone. Always walk the earth with grace, firmness of faith, strength, kindness and dignity that you all displayed through this 😊
